

Set Raymond Free

at a quarter to midnight comes a knock at your head too long since your special friend has visited no one knows you better than your old friend Ray surely he will help you through another day

set Raymond free
how can we make you see?
you better let him be

good old Raymond never leaves you alone he promises to only take all you own when Ray is there you never seem to get much done lately it is clear he has you on the run

set Raymond free
how can we make you see?

everyone has told you Ray is only here to use your time has come to choose Raymond is a habit you should lose

set Raymond free
how can we make you see?
you better let him be

set Raymond free
set Raymond free
